

Alex Scott-Phillips

Year of call: 1995

Areas of Practice

Employment & Discrimination, Family, Personal Injury, Prison law, Direct Public Access Barristers, Child Abduction, Immigration

EDUCATION

Educated at Rugby School and Durham University, Alexander was called to the Bar by the Inner Temple in 1995.

PRACTICE PROFILE

Alexander has twenty years experience with a common law practice specialising in family law.

He has extensive knowledge to deal with difficult public law and private law matters. His practice covers all venues of the family court and although predominately working in London, takes him to courts all over the country.

His relaxed and reassuring manner allow Alexander to quickly establish a good rapport with his clients who are rapidly reassured as to his ability to represent them from the outset.

FAMILY PUBLIC LAW

Alexander appears in all aspects of child care work concentrating in the representation of the parents regarding their children or other interested members of their families.

He represents clients from the instigation of proceedings to their conclusion and has great experience of :-

-Non accidental injuries

- Sexual abuse
- Fictitious or induced illness
- Neglect
- Mental health issues.

FAMILY PRIVATE LAW

Again Alexander acts for parents and their extended families in all aspects of private law including:- - Child Arrangement Orders regarding with whom the children should live and when and how they are able to see both parents

- jurisdictional and cultural issues affecting the children
- specific issue applications - for example where the children should go to school, applications to change their names or specific holiday periods.
- leave to remove from this jurisdiction to another country,
- international child abduction involving countries involved with The Hague Convention and those who are not
- Appeals of court decisions
- Injunctive proceedings including non molestation orders
- Occupation Orders regarding where the parties live.
- Prohibitive Steps Orders, forbidding the other side from doing certain things.

OTHER AREAS OF WORK

Alexander also represents parents appearing at the FDAC (family drug and alcohol court)

He advises and acts in all aspects of Ancillary Relief and related enforcement proceedings and claims brought under the Trusts of Land and Appointment of Trustees Act 1996.

Employment Tribunal work representing employees at all stages of proceedings and immigration matters are also undertaken by Alexander.

Alexander is qualified to accept instructions under the Direct Public Access to Barristers Scheme

WHAT CLIENTS SAY

"I would not hesitate to use Mr Scott-Phillips again in the future or to recommend him to others. He handled this public law case with aplomb "

Sian Bannon - Milton Keynes Family Law Group.

"Dear Mr Phillips,

I would like to say a big thank you for representing me and doing such a splendid job.

I appreciate the work you carried out helped me to stay on top of the case and kept me and my little boy safe"

Direct Public Access Client

"Alexander helped me to gain the outcome that I wanted in court regarding Child Contact Arrangements. I could not have done it without him. He helped me to mediate and offered me advice on what decisions were in the best of interest of my child and I. When representing me in court he got the point across very well and the judge accepted our proposals. I left court feeling relieved and felt the outcome was fair and in my favour. Huge success"

Direct Public Access Client

MEMBERSHIPS

Family Law Bar Association

5 Pump Court | Temple, London | EC4Y 7AP | 020 7353 2532 or 07976 368031