

Chris Mitropoulos

Year of call: 1997

Areas of Practice

Family, Direct Public Access Barristers, Immigration

EDUCATION

Trinity College, Cambridge

BA (Hons) Modern Languages (French and German)

Diploma in Law

PRACTICE PROFILE

Family: Chris is instructed in a wide range of children's matters within both public and private law.

His practice covers all issues relating to residence, contact specific issue and prohibited steps in private law and all issues relating to care proceedings in public law acting for both local authorities, parents and guardians.

Chris regularly deals with injunction applications under the Children Act and the Family Law Act, Protection of Harassment Act injunctions as well as committal proceedings. His practice covers all venues of the Family Court including the High Court, Principal Registry of the Family Division, County Court and Family Proceedings Court.

Chris' practice also comprises claims for ancillary relief, cohabitee disputes and Part 8 applications under the Trusts of Land and Appointment of Trustees Act 1996 as well as financial relief applications under the Children Act 1989.

Immigration: Chris regularly appears before Special Adjudicators at asylum/ human rights adjudications. His practice also includes presentation of appeals (and drafting of grounds) to the Immigration Appeal Tribunal and Judicial Review cases in the Administrative Court.

Chris is qualified to accept instructions under the Bar Council Direct Public Access to Barristers Scheme.

LANGUAGES

Fluent in French, Greek and some German

MEMBERSHIPS AND AFFILIATIONS

Family Law Bar Association

Immigration Law Practitioners' Association

5 Pump Court | Temple, London | EC4Y 7AP | 020 7353 2532 or 07976 368031