Practice overview

Helena started a mixed common law pupillage with Chambers in September 2024 and went on her feet in April 2025. She is gaining experience in all of our key practice areas, and is getting great feedback from solicitors including "Just wanted to let you know that Helena was very good. Great to work with. I look forward to instructing her in the future."

Before pupillage, Helena worked as a paralegal at Stewarts for almost three years, assisting a Partner who specialised in catastrophic brain and spinal cord injury. As a paralegal, Helena took notes at conferences, court hearings and meetings, drafted documents (including witness statements and draft orders) and liaised with clients. Helena was later appointed Paralegal Co-ordinator in which role she delivered training to paralegals joining the firm.

Helena has also volunteered for various organisations including the Free Representation Unit, where she successfully represented her client at the Employment Tribunal, and for several social mobility charities. She also provided representation for CAIWU, representing members at disciplinary hearings and through written advocacy.

Helena is good at absorbing and analysing large amounts of information quickly, and distilling it into key legal arguments. She is also good at working with vulnerable clients in very stressful circumstances and is good at communicating complex legal and factual issues to them in an appropriate manner.

Notable Cases

R v (1) NC (2) LAN: Represented a defendant (D1) who was charged with dwelling burglary. Helena successfully persuaded the CPS to replace the charge with a charge of non-dwelling burglary. However, D1's co-defendant (D2) had already pleaded guilty to dwelling burglary for which he had received a custodial sentence. Helena successfully represented D2 at his appeal against conviction, which led to his sentence being reduced from 9 months to 6 months.

R v Ebanks: Successfully prosecuted a burglary case which resulted in a sentence of 7 years 6 months for the Defendant. A report of the case can be found here.
