Practice overview

Monique is a common law pupil who joined chambers in October 2026.

Prior to commencing pupillage, Monique worked as a housing paralegal. Within this role, she attended court as a Housing Possession Duty Advisor. She appeared in over 300 hearings, representing clients in mortgage, private and social housing possession proceedings. Clients commended her ability to assimilate large amounts of information under limited time constraints and present targeted and impactful submissions.

In previous roles, Monique has also worked as a Junior Clerk for a regional family and civil set and as a barrister's personal assistant, largely focused on employment litigation.
