Practice overview

Taehyun commenced pupillage in October 2022 and has been on his feet and available for instructions from April 2023. He accepts instructions in each of Chambers main practice areas – civil, family and criminal law.

To instruct Taehyun, please contact our practice managers on 020 7353 2532.

Taehyun has experience as a County Court Advocate working on cases relating to mortgage and housing matters, bankruptcy and the Consumer Credit Act. He also worked as an in-house Advocate at DAC Beachcroft representing clients on RTA and Credit Hire small claims, as well as personal injury litigation.

Prior to pupillage, Taehyun volunteered with vulnerable communities in Ukraine and Australia. He also went on a humanitarian mission in Vanuatu (Pacific Islands) focused on enabling diplomacy between native tribes and teaching the English language to the youth. Due to his wide-ranging experience, Taehyun is good at working with vulnerable clients and he understands the importance of tailoring his advice to their unique interests and needs.
